Membership

Mr. Hruska reported that 9 new families signed up. The troop is expecting 6 new committee members and 3 new ASM's. All but one of the new scouts is going to summer camp.

Training:

Mr. Hruska reported that is all up to date.

Court of Honor:

Ms. Hoague reported that she has the template to print certificates.

Treasurer:

Checkbook	$ 7,245.88
Scout Accounts	$ 910.49
Troop Account	$ 6,335.37
Council Store	$ 483.33
Scout Support	$ 169.50

Ms. Smith reported that scout support account still has $169.50 in the scout account and proposed a $100 donation that was received from the Church be applied to this account. All agreed. She also reported that she is owed receipts from ASM but has not received any to date. Court of Honor budget is a little over budget. That will be adjusted for the next budget year. There are still issues with the Scout Checks. She will talk to the Scouts during the next meeting to bring up all new scouts up to date.

Fundraising:

Mr. Athanasoulis reported for Mr. Koljeski that an email was sent out for a sales contest. The first drawing for top sales will be next Monday and April 22nd. Scouts will be required to bring their cash. Mr. Koljeski will talk to the Scouts and parents about expectations next week.

Service Projects:

Ms O'Brien reported that she can get funding through her life insurance to benefit the community and is asking for ideas. Roadside clean-up and ushering is this Sunday.

Old Business

4/1/19 - Ms. Hoague offered to organize the donated scout uniforms. She will need to get bins to get this organized. Ms. Smith will provide a check to Wal-Mart for the purchase.

Ms Hoague reported that the bins have been ordered and are in use.

New Business

Mr. Hruska did an orientation for the new Scout parents.

Adjournment
